2020 Mandrarossa Perricone Rosé, Italy, Siciliane IGT, Wine Review

NOVEMBER 01ST, 2021 BY LOREN SONKIN

Sicily, Italy

This is a Rose wine from Sicily made from 100% Perricone grapes. Salmon pink/orange in color, clear and bright. The nose has apples, strawberries and some cherries. Medium bodied. On the palate, cherries, red apples with slight strawberries. A slight orange rind note on the finish. This is refreshing and should be versatile with food. Pasta alla Norma should be a classic match. Drink over the next couple of years.
